Design Process

AT A GLANCE

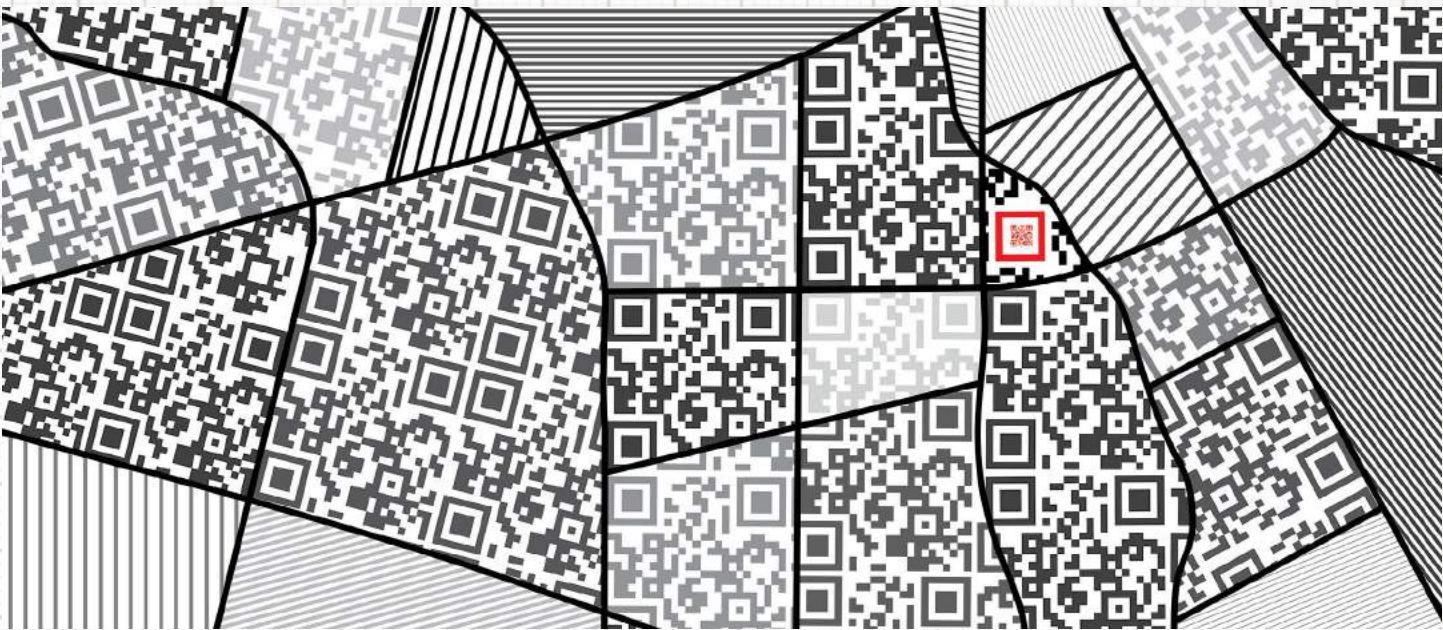

Designer's Concept

We work with our clients to identify their inspiration and highlight their objectives.

Conceptual Sketch

Our in-house team explores the concept and develops materials to illustrate design intent.

Wallcovering Design

The final design is created by our talented artists according to client specifications for size and color. Wallcovering samples are printed and provided for approval.

Custom Wallcoverings

A L A C A R T E

Whether your project is large or small, we can help! At HG Arts, we realize that no two interiors are the same. We also understand that wallcoverings for hospitality projects have much different requirements than those for healthcare, commercial or residential projects. That is why our consultants and artists work closely with our clients to customize designs to meet any specification.

What makes us different

- Large and diverse collection of images
- Custom modification of image subject
- Image recoloring upon request
- Image sizing for variable wall dimensions
- 4-6 week lead time for small production run
- 8-12 week lead time for large production run
- Eco-friendly inks and LEED substrate options
- Proudly created and manufactured in the USA

No matter the application, we've got your walls covered!

Angles & Blocks

COLLECTION

This bright array of geometric shapes and graphic elements answers the call of current design trends. Broad blocks of color and non-repeating patterns turn an accent wall into an intriguing focal point for an entire room. The flexibility of this collection comes from its rich variety of color that is easily paired with textiles, floor coverings, furniture and accessories.

Natural & Scenic

COLLECTION

When natural imagery is incorporated into design it evokes a feeling of connectedness. Regional scenery creates a sense of place and shapes the identity of a space. The soft neutral colors in this collection brighten and calm while the photography establishes theming and provides an expressive counterpoint to the clean lines of innovative and stylish interiors.

Black & White COLLECTION

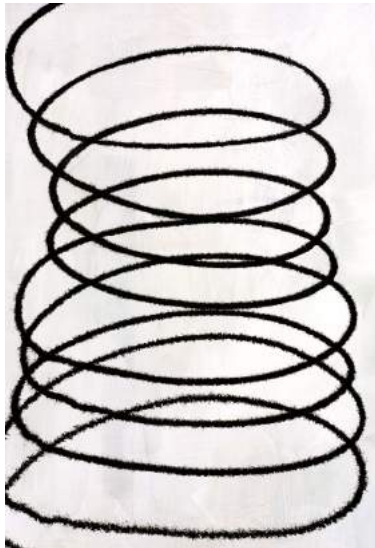

Classic. Clean. Unobtrusively sophisticated. The wallcoverings from this monochromatic collection make a real impact in any space. The deepness of black in contrast with the openness of white makes a bold design statement. Although the number of colors used is limited, there are no limitations in how effortlessly this imagery works together with the overall room décor.

Lambs & Lions

COLLECTION

Younger generations need inspiration too! The vibrant colors and lively subject matter of this collection is sure to engage developing and impressionable minds in a positive way and encourage them to flourish. Whether used as a wall mural or accent wall, the energetic juxtaposition of line, shape, symbol and pattern will add style and complexity to rooms for all children, teens and in-between.

Graffiti & Grunge

COLLECTION

The demand for graffiti-style artwork has exploded in recent years. This powerful form of expression has modern appeal across multiple age groups and is always a show-stopper. In this visionary collection, vivid colors pair with culturally significant imagery from the entertainment, fashion and design worlds to form unforgettably edgy, flirty and always vibrant wallcoverings.

Street & Spray

COLLECTION

Despite its urban origins, this smart collection offers a more subtle interpretation and higher representation of the street style. Abstract forms and graphic elements combine with aerosols and dripping paint to create truly unique backgrounds and textures. In addition, the striking color palette of these images can transform any interior into a dramatic sensory experience.

Abstract & Fluid

COLLECTION

Photography captures the fine details of our surrounding world and transforms them into stunning and unexpected works of art. In this abstracted collection of wallcoverings, the myriad of deep and vivid hues work in symphony with line, shape and motion. The result is a wondrous and compelling focal point that will definitely make a statement in any interior design.

Numbers & Letters

COLLECTION

Another prominent trend in the design world is the incorporation of textual and symbolic elements in dissociative ways. This collection analyzes, deconstructs and recreates familiar linguistic forms into bright imagery that challenges and intrigues. The combination of bold primary colors forms a narrative that is certain to punctuate any space and communicate a completely original style!

Soft & Subtle COLLECTION

The placement of watercolors in modern interiors is on the rise again. These bright and airy images evoke a mood of romantic softness and sophistication. The opaque quality of the paints makes colors appear richer and more luminous while the subject matter soothes, fascinates and enchants. The versatility of this collection easily transforms décor into a look that is unparalleled.
